

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

In these Terms and Conditions of Sale (“Terms”), “we”, “us” and “our” mean GES Graphite, Inc., Advanced Graphite Machining USA, LLC, or any other affiliated entity as the seller (“Seller”) of products covered by these Terms. “You” and “your” refer to the buyer of the products. These general terms and conditions of sale (along with any directly associated written Seller specification or quotation) exclusively will govern the sale or licensing by Seller of all goods and services (the “Products”) furnished hereunder. Our acceptance of your order is expressly based on the condition that these present Terms exclusively apply to all transactions between Seller and You. Unless you first provide us with your written objections, your acceptance of our products is deemed to be your acceptance of these Terms. Our failure to object to your different or additional terms is not a waiver of any of these Terms. Unless we expressly agree in a signed writing, we reject any modification of these Terms, any additional terms or any other inclusion, exception, or changes hereto. An amendment to these Terms must be in writing and signed by the parties.

1. Price: For the sale of products by Seller, you agree to pay the prices stated in our quote, accepted purchase order, or other document signed by Seller. Shipments of products which are within 5% of the quantity ordered shall be accepted, although you only must pay for the amount actually received.

2. Taxes and Other Charges: Prices are exclusive of all taxes, duties, tariffs, excises or other governmental charges on products and any surety bond premiums or bank guarantee costs, except where the law otherwise provides. You are solely responsible for payment or remittance of all such taxes and costs.

Legal title shall be deemed to pass and your obligation to pay shall begin when the product is considered delivered to you under applicable delivery terms even if we pay the freight or provide insurance.

4. Inspection and Acceptance: You shall promptly perform a visual inspection of the products upon delivery. Unless you reject in writing the products or shipments that do not conform to your order or meet applicable specifications within 30 days of your receipt of the shipment, you will be deemed to have unconditionally accepted the products. Purchaser shall establish internal protocols to verify any notice of change of Seller’s bank or payee account, to prevent payments to third parties due to fraudulent “phishing” or email hacking. This includes Purchaser's independent verification of any purported wire or ACH transfer instructions claiming changes in Seller's payment information or procedures (bank account changes, change in payee, etc.). Purchaser shall verify any such purported payment changes by telephone, video conference or in-person verification with Seller's accounting department, sales manager or executive offers. Purchaser shall be responsible for all damages arising from its failure to independently verify changes to Seller's bank or payment account, as well as Purchaser's payments remitted to third parties due to fraudulent intervention.

We may allocate our available products among you and other customers or for internal use in such manner as we, in our sole discretion, deem fit.
